THE SENTINEL.

From the Asheville News.

LETTER FROM MACON COUNTY.

MR. STOKES:—Having reached home after several weeks of absence in the North, I resume my series of letters. In my last I referred to the metaliferous deposites of Cherokee. In this I direct attention to the Gold bearing ledges of Clay county. The Blue Ridge range reaches its greatest general elevation in Haywood, about the sources of the Pigeon. From this point in its south western direction it gradually drops off and becomes lower until it finally disappears under the alluvium of the Mississippi valley. At its highest elevation the Gold bearing strata are lapped up only on its southern slopes. But as they recede and seem to dip or point down, these Gold bearing strata lap over and join the Taconic series on the Northern slopes. Hence the Gold belts of Valley river and Brass Town, which are but continuations of the White Path belt in Gilmer county, Ga., and the Coosa belt in Union county Ga. The Brass Town belt in Clay differs from the Valley river in a very essential manner. The strata on the Valley river belt are in a high state of decomposition, and we have therefore those rich surface and placer mines. The strata of the Brass Town and Fort Hembree belt, are less decomposed and broken down, and consequently, we have the quartz ledges or veins standing in place, undisturbed and awaiting the arts and capital of mining enterprise to develope their value and extract their treasure. I have visited many mining districts and examined numerous veins on the southern slopes of the Blue Ridge, and I hazard nothing in the statement, that this district is better adapted for and promises more in legitimate mining for Gold than any other locality I have visited.

The Valleys of the Hiwassee and Brass Town are good agricultural districts and can always furnish abundant supplies for any number of operatives in the mines. Moreover the country is well timbered and abounds in the finest of water. All these combined will render this district, at some future day, one of the most valuable mining districts in the State.

While central North Carolina boasts of her coal and iron, and the counties skirting the south eastern slopes of the Ridge boast of their Gold, these extreme western counties are not less important. Here we have a most wonderful grouping of valuable minerals in a small area. Over the surface of less than a half dozen counties, we have Magnetic and Hematitic Iron in inexhaustible quantities, Chromate of Iron, Copper, Gold, Argentiferous Galena, Marble of the finest quality, Peroxide of Manganese, Chalcedony or Burh Stone, and a most excellent quality of Kaolin and Agalmatolite for the manufacture of porcelain ware. How wonderful is this grouping! Nor is this all. The country is broken and runs up from these beautiful valleys into sharp and high ridges. The strata usually cross these spurs and ridges, and standing at a high angle constitute a system of natural drainage, so that with an intelligent system of mining, these mines can be worked at less cost than is usual in more level districts of country. It is not, however, within the plan I propose to myself in these letters, to discuss, as a mining engineer, the plan of operations upon these valuable metaliferous deposites. I will, however, be excused for alluding to this, by the intelligent reader, because the economical value of a mining district depends greatly upon the cost of draining the ore beds and extracting the ores.

It seems to me a singular fact that this great mineral wealth should have remained so long locked up, while much greater obstacles have been surmounted to reach similar mines in more distant countries. I hope to see a generous enterprize push to completion our Railroad system, apply the capital and make this mountain section the most desirable as well as the most prosperous section in the American States.

Yours truly, C. D. SMITH.

COLORED VOTERS.

The New York Convention for the amendment of the State Constitution, now in session, with a large Radical majority, manifest a willingness to favor negro suffrage, but are rather indisposed to admit their eligibility to office. The New York World, in noticing this fact, deals very pointedly and practically with the subject.

The World says:

"The eligibility of negroes to all public offices will be a harmless innovation in this State, their numbers being so small and the antipathy to their race so strong that their white fellow-voters are never likely to elect or even to nominate them. Their Radical patrons wish to make them voters, not to share the offices with them, but to use them as tools for giving the white Radicals a monopoly of political power. But in the South the boot will be worn upon the other leg. There, the voting negroes, instead of being an insignificant fraction of the Republican party, will form the great bulk of it. They will be a majority of ten to one in every caucus, and their delegates will be proportionally strong in every nominating convention.

They will say and justly say, "The Republican party have made us voters merely to keep their leaders in office, and as their ascendancy in the country depends upon our support, we will exact an equivalent for our votes. As the white Republicans exclude our colored brethren from office in all the Northern States, we will redress the injustice by taking all the offices for ourselves in the South, where we have the power." This is a result on which the Republican party may not yet have reflected, but it is one which they cannot prevent.—Equality in office-holding follows as legitimately from their principles as equality in voting. They dare not confer the one and withhold the other, lest the negroes, indignant at the inconsistency, should turn against them and vote with the other party. The Republicans are under a delusion if they suppose the Southern negroes will give all the votes and take none of the offices. A fat office is as valuable to a negro as to a white man, and will be coveted by him all the more eagerly as a means of removing the badge of inferiority put upon him by his color. That the negroes will vote themselves into office wherever they have the power is as certain by the principles of human nature as it is by the law of gravity that unsupported bodies will fall to the earth. Black Governors and black Legislatures in the Southern States, black Senators and Representatives sent from those States to Congress, will be the natural and necessary fruit of a policy which confers the ballot upon the negroes and organizes them into a party of which they will form a large majority. It is equally certain that the Southern whites will be restless and recalcitrant under the insolent rule of their former slaves, a certainty that opens a hideous vista of bloody brawls and military domination at which humanity stands aghast and patriotism shudders.—These hideous consequences will be the natural fruit of the Radical policy of forcing negro suffrage on the South."

"ABOLISHING THE STATE GOVERNMENTS."

In the resolution said to have been adopted by the Radical mass-meeting in this City, on the Fourth of July, calling upon Congress to abolish our present State organization, the reason for the demand is based upon the ground that the persons composing that meeting would thus be relieved "of a government that oppresses us, and which, as its interests and impulses are hostile to reconstruction, loses no opportunity to impede or embarrass the return of the State to the Union." Now we have heretofore expressed the opinion that not five hundred individuals in this gathering heard the resolutions read, and that, perhaps, not one-fifth of that number understood their purport and design, when heard, and that, consequently, they really go to Congress and the world only as the vindictive utterance of a mere handful of disappointed and designing political adventurers.

Still, it is claimed that the resolution in question expressed the sentiments of those who were present. In all the audience, large as it was, there were only some six or eight persons with white skins participating. The balance were negroes. The question, therefore, arises, wherein has the State government "oppressed" the colored people?—The Legislature of the State, at its session of 1866, some time in advance of any demand or legislation by Congress, looking to such a result, granted to these very blacks the right to testify, in all cases, in our Courts of justice. The more intelligent of the colored men who were present, must have known this. They must have known, too, that the very man who was then and there presiding over their meeting, Mr. C. L. Harris, formerly of Rutherford, but now of Wake, was one of those who, in that Legislature, voted against according them this privilege! Again we ask, why did not this resolution proceed to specify wherein the black man is oppressed, or treated otherwise than with entire equality and justice, by the existing State government or any of its officers?

If it is alleged that the "oppression" consists in taxation, we answer that it is an oppression which the colored people generally, have not felt, for the simple reason that, in but comparatively few instances, have they paid taxes. Of probably over two thousand of them, in this County, who are subject to poll tax, not more than two hundred have paid it! And we presume that the same state of things exists throughout the State.

Did not these men,—we mean the few whites who concocted these resolutions, for we have no idea they express the sentiments of any of the blacks, except a few "smart" and ambitious "darkies,"—realize the fact that in making such a statement as that contained in this resolution, they were casting a severe reflection upon Gen. Sickles, Gen. Miles, and the military authorities generally, and thereby "impeding and embarrassing" the work of re-construction? If any class of men in this State are "oppressed," is it not Gen. Sickles' sworn obligation, under the Sherman Act, to see that justice is done and the guilty parties punished? If freedmen, particularly, are "oppressed," where is the Bureau, with its Argus eyes and its far reaching arms? If any officer of the State government, in any of its ramifications, has, in any manner, interposed to retard, much less "impede or embarrass," the due and proper execution of the Reconstruction Acts, was it not a delinquency, on the part of Gen. Sickles, to allow it? Has he not had full and plenary power to prevent and arrest it? Did not Gen. Pope promptly do this, in the case of Gov. Jenkins, of Georgia, when the latter simply published a letter in opposition to the acceptance of the terms of the Military Bill?

The truth is, as we have said, this resolution is all clap-trap. It asserts a falsehood,—the offspring of blind and impotent malice. It will return "to plague the inventors."

REGISTRATION IN NORTH CAROLINA.

Registration in this State, as we presumed would be the case, in view of further legislation by Congress, has been deferred by the District Commander until further orders.

We are indebted to his Excellency, the Governor, for the following copy of a telegram received at the Executive Office, on yesterday:

"CHARLESTON, July 11, 1867.

To his Excellency, Jonathan Worth,
Governor of North Carolina:

The Registration of voters in this Military District, provided by Gen. Order No. 18, dated May 8, 1867, will not take place until further orders.

By command of Gen. Sickles,
J. W. CLOUS,
Capt. & A. A. A. G.

THE MISCEGENATION.—We have seen the statement going the rounds, that Gen. Sickles had compelled the recent marriage of the white man, Thornton, in Fayetteville, to the negro woman. The last Fayetteville News, alluding to the matter, says that the whole affair was done under no compulsion by the military or any other agency. An order was granted by Gen. Sickles, giving permission and authority for the marriage to take place, but it was coupled with an express disapprobation of the step to be taken. This is as we expected. The previous relations of the guilty parties, taken in connection with the man's peculiar position, rendered it necessary that the marriage should take place; and permission was accordingly given.

GEN. SICKLES AND AMNESTY.

It is possible that the telegraphic statement from Washington City, touching the letter of Gen. Sickles to Senator Trumbull, may need confirmation, or that there may be some modification of it. The Associated Press Agent at Washington is responsible for it, however.

Whether entirely correct or not, we are strongly inclined to the opinion, that no intelligent and sagacious Northern man, like Gen. Sickles, could have been familiarly acquainted with the actual state of things in the South, as long as he has with District No. 2, and not been fully convinced of the impossibility of finding, among the present enfranchised classes, enough men really and properly qualified to fill the many civil offices necessary for the administration of law and justice. Even with a less rigid disfranchisement, under the Provisional government as administered by Ex Gov. Holden in this State, when he had professedly "no friends to reward or enemies to punish," yet was anxious to get the right men, we speak within bounds when we say, that not half the men appointed in some Counties, as Justices of the Peace, were fully competent for the position.

Now, the thing would be impossible. When all the men who filled office before the war and took an oath to support the Constitution of the United States, and afterwards held office during the war under the State or Confederate governments, or otherwise gave "aid and comfort to the rebellion," are excluded from voting and holding office, it is a moral impossibility to find fit men in the State, to fill creditably its offices. This has been shown palpably, recently, when a few competent men, who were lawyers, were so difficult to procure, to fill the offices of Registers in Bankruptcy in this State; and we predict that the evidence will be still more palpable, when Gen. Sickles announces his Boards of Registration, should he appoint more than three men to a County,—especially, if the Congress should impose upon them the duty of judging of the qualifications of voters. If there be any disposition in Congress, to have anything like a fair and honest registration, this addition to the registration regime will effectually prevent it. We feel confident, before knowing their names, but judging, in general, from whence the registrars have come and to what classes they will generally belong, that five men for each County will not be found, capable of going behind the oaths of those applying for registration, to investigate their fitness or unfitness.

There are possibly 10,000 white men in the State who may be set down as Holdenite Southern Loyalists, and perhaps 35,000 bona fide colored voters. How many of these, among the enfranchised classes, are competent to fill the office of Governor, or U. S. Senator or member of Congress, or Judge of the Supreme or Superior Courts, or Public Treasurer, &c? How many are competent for Solicitors, or Justices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Clerks or Constables? For the higher offices they cannot be found. Nor are there five hundred of them capable, mentally and morally, of filling the lower offices. It is proper however, to add to these, a number who prefer to be classed among moderate Republicans, to swell the list, yet, with all these among the enfranchised, there are not enough to fill, with any credit, one half the offices of the State. Leave out the Conservatives and disfranchised men of the State, and several of the more important offices cannot be filled. We endorse therefore most heartily the alleged views of Gen. Sickles to Mr. Trumbull, and they will be backed by the bulk of the intelligence of North Carolina.

P. S. Last night's mail brought General Sickles' letter, which will appear to-morrow. Its tenor is fairly given in the telegram.

POOR TENNESSEE!

The few facts disclosed in the brief notice, which we publish to-day, of the late riot in Franklin, Tenn., confirm fully what we have heretofore said, that Tennessee was the worst governed among the Southern States, and that none of them needed reconstruction so much. It may be, that some of the Conservatives of that State lack prudence,—many of them may have bad feeling, but, harrassed, worried and abused as they have been, under the Brownlow administration, it is perhaps not in human nature to bear everything, for so long a time, without retaliation. Let it be borne in mind, that in the election to take place in Tennessee in August, two-thirds of the former white voters in that State are disfranchised. Every man concerned in the "rebellion" is not allowed that privilege of citizenship. The contest, therefore, is between the Brownlow Radicals and the more conservative Union men.

The same elements of antagonism really exist in this State, between the Holden-Radical wing and the more moderate Republicans. There are those who would involve us in the same misrule and anarchy which prevail in Tennessee. We are glad to know that there are moderate Republicans in North Carolina, who will oppose this as strongly as the Conservatives will.—It is for this reason that we have suggested, that, where it is found impossible to elect to the State Convention eligible and qualified true Conservative men, the people should unite upon sound and honest men, who claim to be moderate Republicans, in order to defeat ultra-Holdenite Radicals.

Speaking of the riot at Franklin, Tenn., the New York Herald says:

"Intelligent men, detailed from this office, who have recently canvassed the Southern States for information touching their material, social and political situation, report that Tennessee to-day is by far in the most disorderly, confused and turbulent condition of any of the States concerned in the rebellion."

The Radicals throughout Tennessee have become very bold and aggressive, and threaten that, backed up by Brownlow, they will carry the elections if necessary by force. One of the captains in the Brownlow militia announced that he would be governed by the Radicals, if not by fair means then by foul.

STATE ITEMS.

——The Statesville American gives an account of a characteristic Radical outrage in Wilkes. It says:

"The Mail Carrier from Wilkesboro, brought a report here last week, that a large assemblage of citizens of Wilkes county, composed of negroes, red strings, and white folks, met there to celebrate the 4th. When the orator of the red strings had concluded his address, Mr. Armfield was called upon to address the assemblage, but was set upon by the motley groupe of the opposite politics and forced from the stand in the Court House, with threats dire and the brandishing of clubs, pistols and knives! This is a sad commentary upon the privilege of free speech and the rights of citizens!"

——Rev. N. W. Wilson, from Chapel Hill, is on a visit to Portsmouth. The congregation of the Court Street Baptist Church propose to call him to the pastorate.

——"The Fourth" was celebrated in Fayetteville in a quiet and orderly manner. An address was delivered by Col. Jno. W. Hinsdale,—of which the News says:

"Col. Hinsdale's address was elegant, appropriate and finished; it was purely national in its tone and expression, and faithfully represented his own political sentiments as set forth in his note of acceptance of the invitation by the Committee of Arrangements. It could by no possibility offend any class of our people, and was what we would have expected from the good taste and judgment of the speaker."

—— A Chess Club is to be formed in Charlotte.

—— The Provost Court for the counties of Cumberland, Harnett, Richmond, &c., established by order of Gen. Sickles, of which W. H. Porter is "Chief Justice," (!) has convened in Fayetteville. The first case on trial is that of one Jasper Williams, a negro exhorter, arrested under charge of persistently and systematically uttering incendiary speeches and inciting the negroes to engage in riot and lawlessness.

—— Mrs. Downing's new comedy, entitled "Nobody Hurt," has been acceptably and successfully presented by the Bailey Troupe in Charlotte. The Guardian says of the play, that it "bears the impress of genius and originality,—the characters are drawn to life, and the whole abounds in side-splitting but refined humor, interspersed with passages of deep pathos, eloquence and feeling."

THE CROPS.

A gentleman, formerly a resident of Norfolk, now engaged in traveling in connection with a large commercial house in Louisville, Ky., says, in a letter dated June 30, to one of his relatives in Norfolk:

"In Mississippi the wheat harvest is more than an average one. A great deal of corn is being raised. The cotton crop may prove a failure owing to the backward Spring, and an early fall will ruin it.

The Almighty has blessed Georgia and Alabama with an abundant wheat crop.—Wheat opened in the market at $1,60, and two weeks ago millers were afraid to make offers owing to anticipated large crops.—Over 200,000 bushels of wheat are for sale at the little town of Centreville, Ga. Corn is looking fine everywhere."

RADICAL MEETING IN CHATHAM.

CHATHAM CO., N. C., July 9, 1867.

Messrs. Editors:—Some weeks ago the Raleigh Standard gave notice that there would be a meeting of the colored people at the Freedmen's School House, near Williams' Mill, Chatham County, on Saturday, the 7th inst., and of course speakers were expected who could instruct them in the plain and direct road to salvation.

At the appointed time and place, an assemblage of about three hundred colored people, and five or six whites, (supposed to belong to the league,) were in position and ready for the work. A few white citizens were also present as spectators.

Jos. W. Holden, Harris and others, who were expected to address the audience there assembled, failed to make their appearance, to the sad disappointment of those who were awaiting instruction.

However, one John Smith, of color, said to be a Preacher of Righteousness, but rather on this occasion of Radicalism, so far as he was instructed, urged upon his brethren the necessity of voting, and, in so doing, not to vote away their rights; which they would do, if they did not vote for the Republican party. He was sorry to see that some of his brethren were led away by the white people of the South to reject the doctrine of the Radicals.

Resolutions were then offered, expressing gratitude for the protection afforded by the military, endorsing the proceedings of the Holdenite Convention of last Spring, and also the course pursued by the Raleigh Standard. These resolutions recited that a chairman had been called, a secretary requested to act, and a committee appointed to draft resolutions, which I must believe was an entire fiction, as I saw no such preliminary proceedings, nor any one, to my knowledge, who did see them.

They were read by the supposed Secretary, who thereupon announced that all who favored "these resolutions should raise their right hands." A pause ensued; when Mr. Secretary, raising his hand, a few of the colored people did likewise in imitation; clearly showing that whether they did or did not favor them, they certainly did not understand them. The negative opinion was not called for; the vote, I suppose, being unanimous. Mr. Secretary further stated that Gov. Holden told him that speakers would certainly be in attendance, and accounted for their absence from the fact that there were difficulties among the leagues in the Buckhorn region, intimating that they were gone thither to bring the disciples together again in peace and unity.

Numbers of printed documents were in circulation, containing Constitutions and by-laws for league societies; also instructions for colored men to vote for Black Republicans, as well as to influence their minds against the white people of the South. They were forwarded by Congressman Schenck to the Ex-P. G., who distributed them here, notwithstanding his organ, the Standard, but a few fleeting months ago, reared the "landmark" of "unqualified opposition to what is called negro suffrage."

Upon the whole, after having witnessed one of these meetings, I am inclined to believe, from the intimation of things, that the Holdenites find the colored people harder to delude than they bargained for; it being difficult to make them perceive the benefit of deserting their old masters for those who only wish to use them for party purposes.

RIOT IN TENNESSEE.

NASHVILLE, Tenn., July 7.

John Trimble, candidate for Congress, and two candidates for the State Legislature, all Radicals, had an appointment to speak yesterday at Franklin, Williamson county. A large number of persons, white and black, attended; among the latter, members of a loyal league, about eighty in number, who paraded the streets in regalia, with a band of music, and armed, occasionally firing a salute. The candidates were heard without interruption, the speaking lasting until about half past four o'clock. Subsequently, however, Trimble, when not present, was denounced on the public square, and one of the Legislative candidates badgered for something he had said. Much excitement arose, and symptoms of ill feeling between some of the whites and colored Leaguers were developed. The Leaguers retired in bad humor to a grove where they were followed by a son of Dr. Cliffe, who in a conciliatory address advised them to disperse. They agreed to do this and marched back to their hall. By this time night came on, and, after stowing away their regalia, &c., they left the hall and returned to the public square, where a collision immediately occurred. It is alleged that they were fired on by a party of white and colored Conservatives, a man named Cady, a livery stable keeper, firing the first shot. The affair lasted but a few moments—half a minute, perhaps. There appeared to be a volley in attack and a scattering reply, resulting in the death of Cady, who was shot through the heart, and the wounding of eight whites and eighteen blacks. Three of the latter are mortally wounded. Some of the wounded blacks are conservatives. The radical blacks were much exasperated and threatened to return and renew the fight, but Dr. Cliffe interposed and prevailed upon them to desist. An official investigation will be necessary to fix the responsibility for this murderous affair. On one hand it is charged that the colored Leaguers were armed, were menacing in deportment and desired a fight; on the other, that they had been previously and repeatedly assaulted, and they were armed in self defence, and the attack evinced a preparation and design to do so. It was apprehended that the difficulty would be renewed, but all is quiet. A company of the 45th Regulars left this place this afternoon for Franklin to maintain quiet. The affair is deplored by all parties.

The Paris Exposition seems to have attracted other visitors besides crowned heads. The city was never so full of thieves. Men are assaulted in broad daylight. Some days since, a fat gentleman was walking near the Buttes Chaumont Park, when a lad, observing how the promenader's movements were embarrassed by his obesity, snatched his hat off his head and ran away with it. The victim gave chase. It was a hippopotamus chasing a greyhound. The fat man was soon obliged to stop, mop the torrents of sweat which flowed from his cheeks and lean against a wall, puffing and blowing.—The young rogue was far away with his prize. A man came up and asked what was the matter. The fat man related his adventure, adding, "I really am exhausted; I cannot budge another step. I thought my legs stronger." The new comer said: "Nonsense! you don't mean to say if a thief tried to take your watch you could not prevent him?" "Alas! that is my condition." "In that event I shall profit by it," So saying, the second thief thrust his hand into the fat man's pocket and took his watch and chain before obesity could recover from his surprise.

WEST POINT.—We see that Zack Smith, a young freedman, has applied to the Secretary of War for a cadetship at West Point, from the First Congressional District of South Carolina. This is very proper, and we cannot well see how the Secretary can refuse the application. The appointments for the South have, for the last seven or eight years, been given to Northern youths, and some of them have recently graduated, and Mr. Stanton can urge no good reason to refuse this young freedman. His loyalty is unquestioned, and certainly his rights are equal to any. By all means let him be appointed. The spirit which forces negro equality at the South and denies it at the North will have a practical illustration, should the application be granted. We want to see how the cadets from the North, especially from the Northwest, will relish the association. The young man has our best wishes, but it will be safe to predict that he will be refused. The theory of equality, not the practice, is what is popular with the Radicals.—Wil. Journal.

THE REPORTED SHOOTING OF SANTA ANNA.—Senor Romero, the Mexican Minister, has received an official letter from the Governor of the State of Yucatan, dated at Marida, on the 21st, stating that General Santa Anna was arrested at Sisal on the 11th, and sent the next day to Campeachy, to be kept in prison there until President Juarez should dispose of him.

The Governor of Campeachy, in an official letter dated June 15, states that General Santa Anna had arrived there, and that he would be kept in prison accordingly. There is, therefore, no probability that he has been tried from the 15th to the 25th, and much less that he would have been shot.—Washington Evening Express, 9th.

THE RECONSTRUCTION QUESTION.—Both Houses of Congress have refused to reconsider the reconstruction question upon such a basis as would admit the Kentucky Representatives. The conclusion is that the Radicals are afraid to let into the Congressional vote any except those they can control and wield at their pleasure. If there cannot be found in the Republican ranks men enough to stand up for their own rights and the rights of their people, the Republic is gone, and anarchy and military despotism is destined to take the place of law.—National Intelligencer.

THE IMPEACHMENT.—The advocates of impeachment have tried hard to get up an excitement upon the question, but they have failed in their efforts. The impeachment question will not be listened to in the Congress.—National Intelligencer.

ASSASSINATION OF RULERS.—The divinity that Shakespeare affirms to hedge a king, is not much regarded in this century, and the heads that wear crowns must lie more uneasily than ever in view of the following facts. Even Queen Victoria has been four times attacked. There have been at least six different plots to assassinate the Emperor Napoleon. In 1852, when Napoleon was at Marseilles, an internal machine, formed by 250 gun-barrels charged with 1,500 balls, was to have been discharged against the Prince and his cortege; but the design was not carried out. On July 5th, 1853, a fresh attempt was made to assassinate him as he was going to the Opera Comique. On April 28th, 1855, Jean Liverani fired two shots at the Emperor in the Grand avenue of the Champs Elysees. In 1857, Thibaldi, Cartolotti, and Grili, came from England to Paris, to assassinate the Emperor, but were discovered, arrested, tried and punished.—On January 14th, 1858, Orsini, Gomes, Pieri, and Rudio, threw their shells at the Emperor. On December 24th, 1863, Greco, Trabucco, Imperatore, and Scaglione, who had gone from London with the intention of killing the French Emperor were arrested in Paris. The King of Prussia was fired at by Oscar Becker, a law student of Leipsic, at Baden, on the 14th of July, 1861, and his Minister, Bismarck, had, last year, a narrow escape from young Blind.—The Emperor of Austria, on February 18th, 1853, was struck with a knife in the neck by a Hungarian named Libeny; in 1858 an attempt was made on the life of Victor Emmanuel, and the Queen of Spain has been twice assailed. There is something remarkable in the almost invariable failure of these attempts. In recent times only two rulers have fallen victims to assassination—the Duke of Parma, who, in 1854, was stabbed with a poignard in the abdomen; and Abraham Lincoln, who was shot by Booth on April 14th, 1865.

THE AMOUNT OF GOLD IN EXISTENCE.—The amount of gold at present in existence is estimated by a correspondent of the New York Evening Post at $5,950,000,000 in value. It may be of interest to see what the bulk of this amount of gold would be if it were all melted and run together. Pure gold is more than nineteen times as heavy as water and a cubic foot of water weighs a thousand ounces avoirdupois. A cubic foot of gold would weigh then over 19,000 ounces avoirdupois; and every such ounce of fine gold is worth somewhat more than eighteen dollars; so that the whole cubic foot of gold would be worth a little more than a third of a million dollars. A cubic yard of solid gold would be worth twenty-seven times as much as that, or over nine millions of dollars; and 660 cubic yards would contain somewhat more than $5,950,000,000 of gold in the world. These 660 cubic yards would be contained within a room about five yards high, eight yards wide and sixteen yards long, say a good sized parlor, or a store of moderate size.—"But," says some one, "gold is so very malleable that even this small bulk of it would gild over the whole earth." But he either over-estimates the malleability of gold, or more likely under-estimates the size of the earth. It takes 1,280,000 leaves of the thinnest gold foil to make an inch in thickness, or about fifteen millions and a third to make a foot, or 46,000,000 to a yard. A cubic yard of gold, then, could be beaten out so as to cover 46,000,000 square yards—somewhat less than ten thousand acres, for there are 4,940 square yards to the acre.—Then, as there are 640 acres to the square mile, the whole 660 cubic yards of gold could be beaten out so as to cover about ten thousand square-miles. That is, a tract only a hundred miles square, less than the extent of Vermont, and a little more than one-fifth of either New York or Pennsylvania.—Rich. Examiner.

MAXIMILIAN'S DEATH TO BE AVENGED.—Several Austrian officers in New Orleans, the remnant of garrison at Vera Cruz, left on Sunday for Havana, where they propose to organize a movement against the Juarez party in Mexico. They claim that they will in a few days be again on Mexican soil, allied with a powerful party, and under the lead of a powerful chieftain. Steps were taken in Washington on Saturday evening to organize a filibustering band, to join a party which it is believed is already nearly completed for a raid on Mexico. The company, it is reported, is to be called Maximilian's Avengers.—Washington Evening Express, 9th.

Thomas Francis Meagher, Secretary and Acting Governor of Montana Territory, died by accidental drowning near Fort Benton on the 1st inst. He was well known as a leader in the Irish Rebellion, was captured during its progress, and sentenced to death, but was subsequently banished to Van Dieman's Land, whence he escaped to this country in 1852. During the late war Meagher commanded, as Brigadier General, one of the finest corps in the Federal army, that which distinguished itself so conspicuously at the battle of Fredericksburg. The deceased had just completed his 44th year.

LIST OF THE PARDONED.—Major F. U. Stitt, the pardon clerk, on Saturday last handed to the President a list of all those pardoned from the States of North Carolina, South Carolina, and Mississippi, embracing in all about 3,000 names, which list will be transmitted to the House of Representatives, in answer to their resolution some time since. The list of those pardoned from Virginia, Alabama, and Georgia will shortly be furnished, which will complete the report.—National Intelligencer.

MEMORIAL TO CONGRESS.—The Republicans of Baltimore, and of the State generally, without distinction of color, in large numbers, have signed a memorial, earnestly praying "Congress at its present session to pass a bill abolishing all distinction in suffrage on account of race or color throughout the Union," and they call the special attention of Congress to the state of affairs in Maryland as one among many reasons for immediate action.—Baltimore American.

The extreme Radical Press, of that class to which Forney's Chronicle and Wilkes' Spirit of the Times belong, cordially support the execution of Maximilian, upon the ground that he was an usurper seeking to establish a government which the people of Mexico did not want. It is strange that our Republicans should have sympathy enough and to spare for all people seeking to govern themselves except those of the South.

It seems finally determined upon that no efforts will be made by the Government to conciliate the Indians. Vigorous war will be prosecuted as soon as the forces on the border can be concentrated. How many years will it be before the disciples of intolerance and morbid negrophilism will be as ready to mete out extermination to the man and brother, as now to the poor Indian.

The Rt. Rev. W. M. Green, D. D., Bishop of Mississippi and Chancellor of the University of the South, has called a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the University, at University Place, Suwanee, on Thursday, the first day of August.

The New Orleans Picayune says a party of about one hundred citizens, representing some of the best families, is about leaving that city on a prospecting tour to Honduras and other ports of Central America. "Ho for the West" would not so often be heard in the North, if more of them were willing to hoe at the East.

DIED,

On Saturday, 6th inst., after a life-long illness, "R. E. L." infant son of D. T. & B. B. Moore, aged six months and nineteen days.

How sad is the death of this little one! Not quite twelve months ago, his bereaved and disconsolate parents had followed to the lonely grave their first born, the sweet and lovely "Reb." Lee. They are now childless—their hopes should now be in heaven. Not more than three days after the birth of "R. E. L." he was attacked by a severe spasm; after which he seemed but a victim of disease. Oh! the untold pain and agony he suffered. But what an example of patience. It would be unnatural for his parents not to mourn their loss, but is there no consolation, no balm for their pierced hearts, in this sad bereavement? There certainly is. Where is the hope of Heaven; the doctrine of infant salvation; the idea of eternal bliss; and the existence of angelic choirs? Be assured, then, dear parents, that "Reb." Lee and "R. E. L." are now hovering around the throne of God, uniting their voices in rapturous strains, while in their hands are harps attuned to the praises of the Lamb. M.

THE SENTINEL.

LOCAL DEPARTMENT.

FRIDAY, JULY 12, 1867.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—W. Gaston Banks, Clayton, N. C., offers for sale, on moderate terms, a yoke of oxen, cart, and several good milch cows.

Attention of parties interested is called to the Court notice from Macon county.

Agricultural Ware-House, Mechanical Tools, Economical Pumps: Mitchell, Allen & Co., Newbern.

The next session of the Charlotte Female Institute (Rev. R. Burwell & Son) commences on the first day of October. This is one of the first institutions in the State.

MAYOR'S COURT.—William Dawson, Co. E., 8th. Infantry, U. S. T., arrested for being in the City, in the night, without a pass, was lodged in the Guard House and turned over to the military authorities.

MILITARY COMMISSION.—A Military Commission consisting of Col. J. V. Bomford, Lt. Col. T. P. Johnston, Capt. P. H. Remington, Lieut. C. E. Hargous and Lieut. Louis E. Granger, with Gen. Ro. Avery, as Judge Advocate, assembled in this City, on Wednesday. The Court met again on yesterday, but only to adjourn to Monday next.

The first case to be tried is that of Maj. D. G. McRae, Capt. W. H. Tolar, and David Watkins, citizens of Fayetteville, charged with the killing of one Archibald Bebee, freedman, who was known to have attempted a rape upon the person of a respectable young lady in Fayetteville.

It is stated that Col. E. G. Haywood, of this City, has been employed by the military authorities to assist in the prosecution.—Robert Strange, Esq., of Wilmington, and T. C. Fuller, Esq. of Fayetteville, have been employed for the defence.

The gentlemen accused were brought to this City, on Wednesday afternoon, under guard.

As the case is one in which our people feel a great interest, we should be glad, were it in our power, to furnish a regular report of the proceedings. We do not know, however, that this would be allowed.

We do not know Mr. Watkins, but the high standing and respectability of Messrs. McRae and Tolar, together with such representations as we have heard concerning this matter, lead us to hope that their innocence will be fully and completely vindicated.

COTTON BLOSSOMS.—Col. Russ brought us, on yesterday, several cotton blooms grown on his farm. On his place, where he is cultivating cotton on shares with freedmen, under the management of Joseph Holloway and Frank Mordecai, colored, many cotton blooms were to be seen on the 4th. of July. We are glad to say that Col. Russ thinks the prospect for cotton is much better than he at one time anticipated.

PITTSBORO' SCIENTIFIC ACADEMY.—The annual Commencement of this institution (C. B. Denson, Principal,) takes place on the 24th., 25th., and 26th. inst. We acknowledge the compliment of an invitation to be present. There are to be declamations, original speeches and other exercises. On the 26th., a Poem will be delivered by Theo. H. Hill, Esq., of this City, which we venture to predict will be the attraction of the occasion and worthy the fine reputation of the author. The "honors" are to be presented to the successful students by the Governor. On the closing night of the exercises there are to be a display of fire-works, a balloon ascension and a social entertainment.

GRAPE CULTURE.—This subject is attracting more than usual attention in various portions of the State. We published, on yesterday, on the fourth page of the Daily, an interesting paper on the subject, read before the Agricultural Society of Chapel Hill, which contains much information.

The soil and climate of North Carolina are peculiarly adapted to the culture of the grape and to wine-making. Care should be taken, however, in cultivating the kind of grape best suited to the particular locality in which it is planted. The Scuppernong grape, which is one of the most delicious grapes found anywhere, and, perhaps equal to any as a wine-maker, changes its character vastly, when cultivated in the middle lands of North Carolina. In the Eastern counties, everywhere, it is very superior. The skin is thin, full of juice, and very sweet. In the up-country the skin becomes thick, its juices are lessened, and it is often quite acid.

THE "FARMER," for July, published monthly in Richmond, Va., by Messrs. Elliott & Shields, is on our table in good time, with its usual variety.

THANKS.—We are under obligations to Messrs. J. E. Mason and W. H. H. Ramsay, of Galveston, Texas, formerly of this State, for an early copy of the Galveston News, extra, containing the full particulars of the execution of Maximilian and his Generals. The telegraph has, however, anticipated their favor. We are glad to know that these two gallant sons of our State have found a prosperous home in that of their adoption.—Wilmington Journal.

We also make our acknowledgments to Mr. W. H. H. Ramsay for the same favor. "Willy" is a Raleigh boy, and, we are glad to learn, is doing very well in Texas. He is with Mr. J. E. Mason, Bookseller and News-Dealer, Galveston.

DOGS.—According to the Mobile Tribune, the method of killing "superfluous dogs" in that City is quite different from the "Woodell" treatment, as practised in Raleigh. "The dogs of Mobile," it says, "are caught in scoop nets, and then tried before a Military Court before being executed."

PLUTONIC.—The Petersburg Index thus compliments the dashing little poem, entitled "Pluto; or the Origin of Mint Julep, by Frank Dashmore," lately issued from the press of Nichols, Gorman and Neathery, and heretofore noticed in this paper:

"It is an ingenious, rhythmical and humorous rendition of the loves of Minthe and Pluto, tracing back to its tragic end, indisputably, the origin of our Virginia drink.—As some evidence of the interest and merit of the brilliancy of the history, we may relate that it has been read in the last few days when everything else has been thrown aside in supreme disgust, and with an interest which withstood the temperature of Saturday noon undiminished. Perhaps we should not give voice to the suspicion, but we do think Mr. Dashmore is not himself, but a certain fair poetess, who, having learned of mint julep in the Old Dominion, sings its praises from a Carolina home.—Be this as it may, we advise all lovers of the beverage to buy the book and read it, certain that upon conclusion one and all will drink a full bumper of the beverage to whoever wrote it."

Pine apples in Paris are made from turnips, and are said to be delicious. The turnips are saturated with an appropriate syrup, which confectioners know very well how to manufacture, and the French Journals say the pine apple "is destined to become a success."

Ex-Governor John A. King, of New York, was, on the Fourth of July, whilst delivering an oration at Jamaica, Long Island, seized with a sudden illness and fainted. Being conveyed from the stand to his home, his entire left side was found to be paralyized, from the effects of which he died on Sunday afternoon.

A Yankee negro teacher at Thomasville, Georgia, being about to leave his black sheep lately, collected from each the sum of ten cents to remember them in his absence.

The Charleston Mercury says that the freedmen's procession, on the 4th, in that city, was much smaller than in 1866. Well-informed persons estimated it at but one-fourth the size of the one last year.

All Europe mourns the death of Maximilian. The Government of England, it is stated, will recall the British Legation, and withdraw from diplomatic relations with the administration of Juarez. That of France has sent out an order suspending all the functions of the French Consuls in the Republic.

During the present month of July we have two new moons, one on the first and the other on the thirtieth day—it being the only month in the year that this occurrence will take place.

Among the jewels in the Swiss department of the Paris Exposition is a very handsome beetle, with diamond eyes, enamelled wings, glittering with precious gems. You touch a spring and he raises his wing sheath and shows a watch, possibly half an inch across.

A colored "gemman" who does landscape in white——with a bucket and big brush, displays quite a pretty sign, not a hundred miles from here: "Professor Johnson, Whitewasher and Carpetshaker."—Wheeling Register.

An afflicted editor, who is troubled with hand organs under his window, longs for the "evil days" mentioned in Ecclesiastes, when "the grinders shall cease because they are few," and "the sound of the grinding shall be low."

WEST INDIA NEWS—FROM THE FRONTIER—REVENUE—MEXICAN MINISTER.

WASHINGTON, July 11, P. M.

Havana advices of the 6th have been received. The slave cargo consisted of five hundred Congos. They immediately scattered.

A heavy invoice of artillery had been received from Cadiz.

The fourth of July was handsomely celebrated. The sugar market is less active.

Jamaica advices say that the plantations are overburdened with taxes. Many persons are leaving the island.

Gen. Jas. F. Russell, of the U. S. A., has just returned from a general inspection of the Posts on the plains and across the Continent. He passed through Kansas, Nebraska, Colorado, Dacotah, Utah, Idaho, Oregon, Washington, California, Arizona and Nevada, returning via Panama. He reports favorably of the country generally, and discredits the accounts of the Indians as greatly exaggerated.

Internal Revenue $700,000.

It is stated on good authority that Otterburg's name goes to the Senate as Mexican Minister.

CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, July 11, P. M.

SENATE.—Mr. Howard withdrew his amendment which specified certain classes as entitled to register, with the remark that as there was a large share of judicial power left in the hands of the District Commanders, it would perhaps, be as well to leave them to determine the matter.

The fourth section was amended by adding that any person appointed by the District Commander may be removed by him.

Mr. Drake introduced an amendment demanding some additional guarantee preliminary to the admission of representatives, but was ruled out of order. He appealed from the chair. The Senate sustained the chair by a vote of 24 to 13.

Mr. Buckalew offered an amendment making the vote for Congressmen cumulative, giving to each elector as many votes as there were Congressional Districts in the State, and allowing him to cast all the votes for one candidate or divide them at pleasure. Ruled out of order by 22 to 7.

The SENATE in session until 8 o'clock, at which time the bill passed.

The HOUSE resumed the consideration of the concurrent resolution of adjournment; an elaborate argument in regard to the impeachment ensued.

Finally Mr. Stevens moved the previous question on the resolution that the Judiciary Committee be ordered to report partially to the House at this Session. The demand was not sustained.

Mr. Wilson moved that the committee be ordered to report next session, and that the committee be allowed to print 1,500 copies of the report, and demanded the previous question, which was sustained, and the resolution passed.

Mr. Stevens then said that he abandoned the matter, and moved that the resolution lie on the table.

The House adjourned to meet at 8, P. M.

THE SURRATT TRIAL.

WASHINGTON, July 11, P. M.

The following is intended to rebut Corporal Dye's evidence that Mrs. Surratt spoke to him from the parlor window:

Mrs. F. R. Lambert sworn.—Witness reside in this city, resided here in April, 1865. Witness remembered the night of the assassination; resided on H. St. then. Between 11 and 12 o'clock, on that night, witness heard a voice from the street saying the President was shot. Witness immediately went to the front parlor and opened the window as two soldiers were passing. She asked them what was the matter. One of them replied that the President was shot by John Wilkes Booth. She asked what so many soldiers were doing in town. She thought there might have been a mob or some disturbance. One replied, "We have been to see a torchlight procession and are returning to Camp Barry." It was dark and hazy.

Jno. F. Hollopan, who boarded at Mrs. Surratt's, and went North as a detective, testified that he lost a handkerchief marked "Jno. H. Surratt," in Burlington.

Mrs. Hollopan testifying regarding the evening of the assassination; says she left the house with Mrs. Surratt to go to church, but had returned. She adds that she did not go to the parlor after she returned from the walk with Mrs. Surratt.—It was 9 or a quarter past 9 when they went out. Mrs. Surratt was as calm as the witness had ever seen her; there was no nervousness or excitement whatever.

Eliza Hawkins, colored, contradicts the testimony of Susan Jackson, who swore that Jno. H. Surratt took supper at home on the night of the 14th.

VIRGINIA RAIL ROADS AND POLITICS.

RICHMOND, July 11, P. M.

A telegram to the Whig from Lynchburg says that a general meeting of the Stockholders of the Virginia and Tennessee Rail Road, was held there to-day. The meeting split. One assemblage passed resolutions denouncing consolidation with the Southside and Norfolk Rail Roads.—And the other adopted resolutions protesting against any legal measures being taken to defeat consolidation. The consolidation meeting represented nearly four thousand shares.

A Republican meeting was held this evening.—It was addressed by Dr. Sterling, who cautioned the negroes against insisting on social equality. Mr. Danner also spoke.

A meeting of Germans was held to-night, and a Republican club organized with J. C. Danner, a German Lawyer, as President.

THE MEXICAN AUSTRIANS—REGISTRATION.

NEW ORLEANS, July 11, P. M.

The Austrians from Maximilian's army in this city are supported by the Austrian Government, which also authorized the charter of a vessel to convey its subjects from New Orleans, Mobile, Havana and Vera Cruz to Trieste.

Gen Sheridan orders the Board of Registers, at once, to select suitable persons to act as Commissioners of elections. Three persons are to be selected for each precinct, whose names will be submitted to the supervising officers for approval.—In order to accommodate the largely increased number of voters, two days will be given for voting. The Boards of Registers are ordered, at once, to proceed to make up their poll-books.

Masses for Maximilian are said in several of the principal churches in this city.

CONNECTICUT MUTUAL LIFE INSURANCE COMPANY OF HARTFORD, CONN.
The Largest Life Insurance Company in the World!

THE SENTINEL.

FRIDAY, JULY 12, 1867.

THEM THAT HONOR ME, I WILL HONOR.

"That is right, my boy," said the merchant, smiling approvingly upon the bright face of his little shop boy, [illegible] him a dollar that lay among the dust and paper of the sweepings.

'That's right,' he said again; 'always be honest, it is the best policy.'

'Should you say that?' asked the lad, timidly.

'Should I say what? that honesty is the best policy? Why, it's a time honored old saying—I don't know about the elevating tendency of the thing—the spirit is rather narrow, I'll allow.'

'So grand mother taught me,' replied the boy; 'she said we must do right because God approved it, without thinking what man would say.'

The merchant turned abruptly toward the desk, and the thoughtful faced little lad resumed his duties.

In the course of the morning, a rich and influential citizen called at the store. While conversing, he said, 'I have no children of my own, and I fear to adopt one. My experience is that a boy of twelve, (the age I should prefer) is fixed in his habits and if bad—"

'Stop!' said the merchant, 'do you see that lad yonder?'

'With that noble brow!—yes, what of him?'

'He is remarkable—

'Yes, yes—that's what everybody tells me who has a boy to dispose of—no doubt he'll do well enough before your face. I've tried a good many, and have been deceived more than once.'

"I was going to say," replied the merchant calmly, "that he is remarkable for [illegible]. Never have I known him to deviate from the right, sir—never. He would [illegible] (the merchant colored) too honest for my employ. He points out flaws in goods, and I cannot teach him prudence in that respect—common prudence, you know, is—is common [illegible] prudence,—ahem?"

The stranger made no assent, and the merchant hurried on to say:

"He was a parish orphan, taken by an old woman out of pity, when yet a babe.—Poverty has been his lot; no doubt he has suffered from hunger and cold uncounted [illegible]; his hands have been frozen, so have his feet. Sir, that boy would have died rather than be dishonest. I can't account for it; upon my word, I can't."

"Have you any claim upon him?"

"Not the least in the world, except what common benevolence offers. Indeed, the boy is [illegible] good for me."

"Then I'll adopt him; and if I have found one really honest boy, I'll thank God."

The little fellow rode home in a carriage, and was ushered into a luxurious home; and he who sat shivering in a cold corner, listening to the words of a poor old pious creature, who had been taught of the spirit, became one of the best and greatest divines that England ever produced; [illegible] "Them that honor me, I will honor."

A poor Arab travelling in the desert, met with a spring of clear, sweet, sparkling water. Accustomed as he was to brackish wells, to his simple mind it appeared that such water as this was worthy of a monarch, and filling his leathern bottle from the spring, he determined to go and present it to the caliph himself!

The poor man travelled a considerable distance before he reached the presence of his sovereign, and laid his humble offering at his feet. The caliph did not despise the little gift brought to him with so much trouble. He ordered some of the water to be poured into a cup, drank it, and thanking the Arab with a smile, ordered him to be presented with a reward. The courtiers around pressed forward, eager to taste of the wonderful water; but, to the surprise of all, the caliph forbade them to touch a single drop.

After the poor Arab had quitted the royal presence with a light and joyful heart, the caliph turned to his courtiers, and thus explained the motives of his conduct: "During the travels of the Arab," said he, "the water in his leathern bottle had become impure and distasteful. But it was an offering of love, and as such I have received it with pleasure. But I well knew that had I suffered another to partake of it, he would not have concealed his disgust; and, therefore, I forbade you to touch the draught, lest the heart of the poor man should have been wounded." In such love will our Lord receive our poor gifts.

THACKERAY ON SMOKING.

The worship of the sacred plant of tobacco has spread through all Europe. I am sure that the persons who cry out against the use of it are guilty of superstition and unreason, and that it would be a proper and easy task for scientific persons to write an encomium upon the weed. In solitude it is the pleasantest companion possible, and in company never de trop. To a student it suggests all sorts of agreeable thoughts; it refreshes the brain when weary; and every sedentary cigar smoker will tell you how much good he has had from it, and how he has been able to return to his labor after a quarter of an hour's mild interval of the delightful leaf of Havana.

Drinking has gone from among us since smoking came in. It is a wicked error to say that smokers are drunkards; drink they do, but of gentle dilutents mostly, for fierce stimulants of wine or strong liquors are abhorrent to the real lover of the Indian weed. Ah! my Julians, join not in the vulgar cry raised against us. Cigars and cool drinks beget quiet conversations, good humor, meditation; not hot blood, such as mounts into the heads of drinkers of apoplectic port or dangerous claret. Are we not more moral and reasonable than our forefathers? Indeed, I think so somewhat; and many improvements of social life and converse must date with the introduction of the pipe.—Early and Late Papers.

THE NEGRO TRAGEDIAN.—Ira Aldridge, the negro tragedian, is coming to America, and will shortly make his bow before a New York audience. The manager who has received this same attraction, however, finds a single bitter drop in his cup of joy. His dreams of fortune flowing to his coffers present a phantom, whose white hands stay the golden stream of his [illegible]. This phantom appears to the lucky manager in his waking hours also, and then it assumes the shape and character of "a leading lady" to support the sable knight of the "sock and buskin," where will he find a lady to play [illegible] or Ophelia, or the gentle "Desdemona"? Even a ballet girl for the "Black [illegible]" would not bring herself "to gaze with eyes that looked love to eyes that spoke again," those eyes being set in the head of an ebon idol. The rest of the company for the [illegible] African are not hard to get, but so far no capable actress has been found who would finally [illegible] to the embrace of a sooty "Lear," or respond to the affections of a true blooded Moor.

"GOT."—The use of the word got is a superfluity in conversation. I have is sufficient, without the expletive. It will be perceived that the superfluity is avoided in the following paragraph:

"After I had got a good night's rest, I got up and no sooner had I got on my [illegible] in came Mr. B. We got into a discussion about an article of furniture [illegible] the day before; he got [illegible], and I got out of the room as quick as possible when he told me that I had got to be extravagant. After we had got through breakfast, we got up an arrangement for a ride; so I got into the carriage; but we had not got far before it rained and we got wet. So turning about, we got back as soon as possible."—Boston Transcript.

Congressional Reconstruction Acts.

For the information of our readers we republish as follows the late reconstruction act of Congress, known as the Sherman-Shellabarger bill. We shall add to it the Howard Amendment, Test Oath and the Supplementary act, all of which will be kept standing until the necessary information they contain shall be generally and fully understood.

THE RECONSTRUCTION ACT.

AN ACT to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States.

[Passed over the President's Veto, March 2d, 1867.]

WHEREAS, no legal State governments or adequate protection for life or property now exists in the rebel States of Virginia, North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Mississippi, Alabama, Louisiana, Florida, Texas, and Arkansas; and whereas it is necessary that peace and good order should be enforced in said States until loyal and Republican State Governments can be legally established: Therefore,

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, That said rebel States shall be divided into military districts and made subject to the military authority of the United States, as hereinafter prescribed, and for that purpose Virginia shall constitute the first district; North Carolina and South Carolina the second district; Georgia, Alabama and Florida the third district; Mississippi and Arkansas the fourth district; and Louisiana and Texas the fifth district.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of the President to assign to the command of each of said districts an officer of the army, not below the rank of Brigadier general, and to detail a sufficient military force to enable such officer to perform his duties and enforce his authority within the district to which he is assigned.

SEC. 3. And be it further enacted, That it shall be the duty of each officer assigned as aforesaid to protect all persons in their rights of person and property, to suppress insurrection, disorder and violence, and to punish or cause to be punished all disturbers of the public peace and criminals, and to this end he may allow local civil tribunals to take jurisdiction of and to try offenders, or, when in his judgement it may be necessary for the trial of offenders, he shall have power to organize military commissions or tribunals for that purpose, and all interference, under color of State authority, with the exercise of military authority under this act shall be null and void.

SEC. 4. And be it further enacted, That all persons put under military arrest by virtue of this act shall be tried without unnecessary delay, and no cruel or unusual punishment shall be inflicted; and no sentence of any military commission or tribunal hereby authorized affecting the life or liberty of any person, shall be executed until it is approved by the officer in command of the district, and the laws and regulations for the government of the army shall not be affected by this act, except in so far as they conflict with its provisions. Provided, That no sentence of death, under the provisions of this act, shall be carried into effect without the approval of the President.

SEC. 5. And be it further enacted, That when the people of any one of said rebel States shall have formed a constitution of government in conformity with the Constitution of the United States in all respects, framed by a convention of delegates elected by the male citizens of said State, twenty one years old and upwards, of whatever race, color or previous condition, who have been resident in said State for one year previous to the day of such election, except such as may be disfranchised for participation in the rebellion or for felony at common law; and when such constitution shall provide that the elective franchise shall be enjoyed by all such persons as have the qualifications herein stated for electors of delegates; and when such constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such Constitution shall be ratified by a majority of the persons voting on the question of ratification, who are qualified as electors for delegates; and when such constitution shall have been submitted to Congress for examination and approval, and Congress shall have approved the same; and when said State, by a vote of its Legislature elected under said constitution, shall have adopted the amendment to the Constitution of the United States, proposed by the [illegible] Congress, and known as article fourteen, and when said article shall have become a part of the constitution of the United States, said State shall be declared entitled to representation in Congress, and Senators and Representatives shall be admitted therefrom, on their taking the oath prescribed by law; and then and thereafter the preceding sections of this act shall be inoperative in said State. Provided, That no person excluded from the privilege of holding office by said amendment to the constitution of the United States shall be eligible to election as a member of the convention to frame a constitution for any of said rebel States nor shall any such person vote for members of such convention.

SEC. 6. And be it further enacted, That until the people of said rebel States shall be by law admitted to representation in the Congress of the United States, any civil government which may exist therein shall be deemed provisional only, and in all respects subject to the paramount authority of the United States at any time to abolish, modify, control or supersede the same; and in all elections to any office under such provisional governments all persons shall be entitled to vote, and none others, who are entitled to vote under the provisions of the fifth section of this act; and no person shall be eligible to any office under such provisional governments who would be disqualified from holding office under the provisions of the third article of said constitutional amendment.

[illegible] X
Speaker of the House of Representatives.
LAFAYETTE S. FOSTER,

The following is the Constitutional Amendment referred to in the 4th. section of the Sherman Bill:

Proposed Constitutional Amendment.

ARTICLE XIV.

Section 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States and subject to the jurisdiction thereof are citizens of the United States and of the State wherein they reside. No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any State deprive any person of life, liberty or property without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.

Sec. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several States according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each State excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for President and Vice-President of the United States, representatives in Congress, executive and judicial officers of a State, or the members of the Legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such State being twenty-one years of age and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such State.

Sec. 3. No person shall be a Senator or Representative in Congress, or elector of President and Vice-President, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States or under any State, who, having previously taken an oath as a member of Congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid and comfort to the enemies thereof. But Congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each House, remove such disability.

SEC. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any State shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims, shall be held illegal and void.

SEC. 5. The Congress shall have power to enforce by appropriate legislation the provisions of this article.

The following is the oath of office referred to in the 5th section of the bill, and also in the 6th of the Supplementary Bill:

An Act to Prescribe an Oath of Office and for Other Purposes.

Be it enacted, That hereafter any person elected or appointed to any office of honor or profit under the government of the United States, either in the civil, military or naval department of the public service, except the President of the United States, shall before entering upon the duties of such office, and before being entitled to any of the salary or other emolument thereof, take and subscribe the following oath or affirmation: "I, A B, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have never voluntarily borne arms against the U. S. since I have been a citizen thereof; that I have voluntarily given no aid, countenance, counsel or encouragement to persons engaged in armed hostility thereto; that I have never sought nor accepted, nor attempted to exercise the functions of any office whatever, under any authority, or pretended authority, in hostility to the United States; that I have not yielded a voluntary support to any pretended government, power or constitution within the United States, hostile or inimical thereto; and I do further swear (or affirm) that to the best of my knowledge and ability, I will support and defend the constitution of the United States against all enemies, foreign and domestic; that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the same; that I take this obligation freely, without any mental reservation or purpose of evasion, and that I will well and faithfully discharge the duties of the office on which I am about to enter. So help me God," which oath, so taken and signed, shall be preserved among the files of the Court, House of Congress, or the department to which said officer may appertain. And any person who may falsely take said oath shall be guilty of perjury, and on conviction, in addition to the penalties now prescribed for that offence, shall be deprived of his office, and rendered incapable, forever after, of holding any office or place under the United States.

Approved July 2, 1862.

SUPPLEMENT TO THE STEVENS-SHERMAN-SHELLABARGER BILL.

AN ACT supplemental to an act entitled an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2, 1867, and to facilitate restoration.

Be it enacted, &c., That before the first day of September, 1867, the commanding general in each district defined by the act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, approved March 2 1867, shall cause a registration to be made of the male citizens of the United States, twenty-one years of age, and upwards, resident in each county or parish in the State or States included in his district, which registration will include only those persons who are qualified to vote for delegates by the act aforesaid, and who shall have taken and subscribed the following oath or affirmation:

"I, ——, do solemnly swear, or affirm, in the presence of Almighty God, that I am a citizen of the State of ——; that I have resided in said State for —— months next preceding this day, and now reside in the county of ——, or the parish of ——, in said State, as the case may be; that I am 21 years old; that I have not been disfranchised for participation in any rebellion or civil war against the United States, nor for felony committed against the laws of any State or of the United States; that I have never been a member of any State Legislature, or held any executive or judicial office in any State, and afterwards engaged in insurrection and rebellion against the United States, and given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I have never taken an oath as a member of Congress of the United States, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any State Legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any State, to support the Constitution of the United States and afterwards engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the United States or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof; that I will faithfully support the Constitution and obey the laws of the United States, and will, to the best of my ability, encourage others so to do. So help me God." which oath or affirmation may be administered by any registering officer.

Sec. 2. That after the completion of the registration hereby provided for in any State at such time and place therein as the commanding general shall appoint and direct, of which at least thirty day's public notice shall be given, an election shall be held of delegates to a convention for the purpose of establishing a constitution and civil government for such State loyal to the Union; said convention in each State, except Virginia, to consist of the same number of members as the most numerous branch of the State Legislature of such State in the year 1860, to be apportioned among the several districts, counties, or parishes of such State by the commanding general, giving to each, representation in the ratio of voters registered as aforesaid as nearly as may be. The convention in Virginia shall consist of the same number of members as represented the territory now constituting Virginia in the most numerous branch of the Legislature of said State in the year 1860, to be apportioned as aforesaid.

Sec. 3. That at such election the registered voters of each State shall vote for or against a convention to form a constitution thereof under this act. Those voting in favor of such a convention shall have written or printed on the ballots by which they vote for delegates, as aforesaid, the words "for a convention;" and those voting against such a convention shall have written or printed on such ballots the words "against a convention." The persons appointed to superintend said election, and to make return of the votes given thereat, as herein provided, shall count and make return of the votes given for and against a convention; and the commanding general to whom the same shall have been returned, shall ascertain and declare the total vote in each State for and against a convention. If a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, then a convention shall be held as hereinafter provided; but if a majority of said votes shall be against a convention, then no convention shall be held under this act: Provided, That such convention shall not be held unless a majority of all such registered voters shall have voted on the question of holding such convention.

Sec. 4. That the commanding general of each district shall appoint such loyal officers or persons as may be necessary, not exceeding three in each election district, in any State, to make and complete the registration, superintend the election, and make return to him of the votes, lists of voters and of the persons elected as delegates by a plurality of the votes cast at said election; and upon receiving said returns he shall open the same, ascertain the persons elected as delegates according to the returns of the officers who conducted said election, and make proclamation thereof; and if a majority of the votes given on that question shall be for a convention, the commanding general within sixty days from the date of election, shall notify the delegates to assemble in convention at a time and place to be mentioned in the notification, and said convention, when organized, shall proceed to frame a Constitution and civil government according to the provisions of this act, and the act to which it is supplementary; and when the same shall have been so framed, said Constitution shall be submitted by the convention for ratification to the persons registered under the provisions of this act, at an election to be conducted by the officers, or persons appointed by the commanding general as hereinbefore provided, and to be held after the expiration of thirty days from the date of notice thereof to be given by said convention, and the returns thereof shall be made to the commanding general of the district.
